Personal Note:

contest cruiser sketch

Ladies and gentlemen, start your sketches.

Chrysler's PT Cruiser looks like a runaway hit. And they're not stopping at our spies say more PT Cruiser models are on the way.

'Course, there's always some smart aleck who thinks th than the pros. And among the TCCers who actually draw might be some bold new designs even Chrysler hasn't d

So, here's your chance to create a Cruiser of your own. For the next four weeks (give or take a few days), TCC wants to see what you'd make of the next PT Cruiser model. Click on these early PT drawings to get the creative juices flowing, then send us your sketches or computer-aided designs. A Cruiser off-roader? Now you're talking. A Cruiser supercar capable of 155 mph? Bring it on, daddy-o.

Send us your entries by April 15th, according to the rules will get a limited-edition Cruiser die-cast model, and a lo Cruiser-related paraphernalia (translation: all the tshot the press intro). We'll also pick a couple of runners-up a of the crop from TCC's "drawer o' plenty."

We'll announce a winner on May 1. Good luck, and may the best hand win.
