

Tequila of the Month

Brand: Porfidio
Type: Anejo
Distillation:

Name: Anejo Single Cask (Cactus)
Aging Process: White Oak
Price (shot or bottle): $108/bottle

Date: Aug/2002

Color: Very Light yellow and clear

Aroma: Full agave smell

First Taste: Smooth and easy

Body: Unremarkable

After Taste: Slight Agave taste.

Smoothness: As good as it gets

Comments: Named for its distinctive hand blown bottle with a cactus in the bottom. When you are ready to move up to the best there is, then it is time to try this tequila. Always wins or rivals everyone's favorites. Also a cult favorite for its hand blown bottle (collectors item). An attractive bottle to save after it is empty. Take the time to really enjoy this tequila, don't be in a hurry and don't skip on accessories (the right glass, lime, and sangrita). Find a comfortable chair, good company, sunset, and a good cigar. Brought to you by an independent distiller and fan of tequila (Martin Grassl).

Overall Rating: 5 stars

Best Use: The best for sipping. Putting in a margarita would be a waste.

Tip of the month- A pretty bottle doesn't mean it is good, but at least they were trying to Home

Previous Reviews